

Trademark License Agreement

Thank you for your business and continued interest in Boise Cascade. We value your company and the continuing relationship between us.

Boise Cascade's trademark policy is to carefully and explicitly protect its trademark rights by requiring third parties to agree to certain terms, as listed in the Trademark License Agreement below, before being authorized to use a Boise Cascade trademark(s). Boise Cascade's trademarks are valuable company assets that have been built through considerable time and expense. They tell consumers that a product or service comes from or is endorsed by Boise Cascade. Boise wants to ensure that the use of its trademarks is consistent with Boise Cascade's trademark standards, provides distinct ownership by Boise Cascade, and is reflective of Boise Cascade's values and reputation.

Trademark License Agreement

- 1.1 Boise Cascade, L.L.C., or its affiliates own and use the trademark (List all other trademark names you wish to use) ("Mark").
